

The Paw Paw Police Department has investigated several complaints from local businesses where they have taken a counterfeit twenty dollar bill. These bills appear to be printed on regular paper and the suspect is using some kind of color copier. The police department is asking local business to look at the money they are accepting from their customers and if you believe the money is counterfeit to contact the police department.

The Paw Paw Police Department has investigated several complaints from local businesses where they have taken a counterfeit twenty dollar bill. These bills appear to be printed on regular paper and the suspect is using some kind of color copier. The police department is asking local business to look at the money they are accepting from their customers and if you believe the money is counterfeit to contact the police department.

The Paw Paw Police Department has investigated several complaints from local businesses where they have taken a counterfeit twenty dollar bill. These bills appear to be printed on regular paper and the suspect is using some kind of color copier. The police department is asking local business to look at the money they are accepting from their customers and if you believe the money is counterfeit to contact the police department.

The Paw Paw Police Department has investigated several complaints from local businesses where they have taken a counterfeit twenty dollar bill. These bills appear to be printed on regular paper and the suspect is using some kind of color copier. The police department is asking local business to look at the money they are accepting from their customers and if you believe the money is counterfeit to contact the police department.